Thanks to Ms. Hohenstein for organizing the author visits for each grade level for World Read Aloud Day. It was so nice to meet so many interesting authors and illustrators.

Tuesday's snow day came at the perfect time to enjoy Global Play Day on Wednesday. Today, students shared all the fun they had outdoors yesterday.

The faculty and I participated in an Illustrative Math training yesterday which was excellent. The students and staff are enjoying our new math program.

Ipswich Public Schools Kindergarten Roundup 2021-2022

Kindergarten Roundup is the first step in the kindergarten registration process. In order to be eligible for entrance to kindergarten for the 2021-2022 school year, a child must be five years old on or before August 31, 2021.

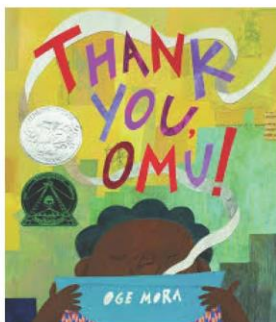

If you have a child who will be entering kindergarten, please complete the KINDERGARTEN ROUNDUP FORM \(CLICK HERE\). Completed forms can be emailed directly to lhillery@ipsk12.net or mailed or dropped off to: Ipswich Public Schools, Attn: Kindergarten Roundup, 1 Lord Square, Ipswich, MA 01938. Information regarding the Kindergarten Information Night and screenings will be sent out once we have received the Roundup forms.

Please contact Central Office at 978-356-2935 x1111 with any questions.

CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH WITH BOOKS BY BLACK AUTHORS AND ILLUSTRATORS!

This Caldecott Honor picture book is a great story about what it means to be part of a community. Oge Mora is the author and illustrator of this book. Her beautiful cut-paper designs help to tell the story of Omu's neighborhood.

Azaleah is very excited to work on her animal project for school, but when her little sister loses her stuffed animal, Azaleah needs to help her find it. Will Azaleah be able to take care of her sister and finish her project?

"Jason Reynolds conjures ten tales (one per block) about what happens after the dismissal bell rings, and brilliantly weaves them into one wickedly funny, piercingly poignant look at the detours we face on the walk home, and in life."
