The week began with the exciting news that Dr. Blake announced that Mrs. O'Brien will be the new principal here at Doyon starting July 1st. The staff and I could not be more delighted. She is a wonderful match for our Doyon community.

Last week, it was wonderful to watch our 4th and 5th grade musicians perform under the MS/HS tent. Thanks to Jamie Fremont-Smith and Marissa Scarano for sharing their talent and love of music with our students. On Friday, our 5th graders & Kindergarteners participated in our first outside Memorial Day assembly. Although we could not have the entire school participate due to the State guidelines, we were fortunate that some of our local veterans and Paul F. Doyon's family. It was a very special way to honor Paul F. Doyon and the rest of the men and women who gave their lives for our freedom.
