

Consent or Denial of Consent for Release of Student Information to Military Recruiter Or College/University Recruiters

[Copies of this form should be given to student in school as well as being provided to parent]

Under the federal "No Child Left Behind" Act, public high schools must give the names, addresses and telephone numbers of students to the U.S. military and college/university recruiters if the recruiters request the information. However, students or their parents have the right to instruct the school in writing that this information is not to be released to either the military or colleges or both.

If you do not consent to the release of this information to military recruiters and/or colleges, please check the appropriate box or boxes below. To be certain your wishes are respected, return this form to Ipswich High by October, although signed forms returned after that date will be effective after receipt by the Ipswich High School Office.

- DO NOT release student contact information to Military Recruiters

- DO NOT release student contact information to College or University Recruiters

Student's name: _____

Name of School: _____

Signature of Student or Parent: _____

Date signed: _____

Students have the right to request that their contact information not be released to recruiters. Parents can override a child's decision by notifying the school in writing, only if the student is under 18. We encourage Parents and students to discuss this information.