

SUBCOMMITTEES OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The School Committee Chair shall appoint members to subcommittees at the annual organizational meeting for a period of one year. These subcommittees may be created for a specific purpose and to make recommendations for Committee action.

- The subcommittee will be established through action of the Committee.
- The Committee will have sole power to appoint the subcommittee members, and each subcommittee Chair shall be elected by the members.
- The subcommittee will establish yearly SMART goals and outcomes with the approval of the full School Committee.
- The subcommittee may make recommendations for Committee action, but it may not act for the School Committee.

All subcommittees of the School Committee are subject to the provisions of the Open Meeting Law including the posting of subcommittee agendas and minutes.
